NOTICE TO UNITHOLDERS

Dear Unitholders

In February 2017, the Greater China ETF issued (i) an addendum (the “Addendum”) to the prospectus dated 3 January 2012, as amended by the addenda dated 18 March 2013, 31 December 2014, 30 April 2015, 28 April 2016 and 13 September 2016 (collectively, the “Prospectus”) in relation to the Greater China ETF and (ii) a revised product key facts statement of the Greater China ETF (the “Revised KFS”). Unless otherwise defined in this notice, terms and expressions used in this notice shall have the same meanings ascribed to them under the Prospectus.

1 Enhanced disclosure relating to liquidity risks and liquidity risk management process

The Addendum provides enhanced disclosure following the regulatory guidance in relation to liquidity risk management. The Manager has adopted a liquidity risk management process and maintains tools and methods for monitoring the liquidity of the Greater China ETF. The overall process involves appropriate oversight by management, measurement processes, regular assessment, on-going monitoring and internal control procedures.

2 Automatic exchange of financial account information (“AEOF”)

The Inland Revenue (Amendment) (No. 3) Ordinance 2016, which came into effect on 30 June 2016, established obligations on Financial Institutions (“FIs”) in Hong Kong to collect and review information in an effort to identify the account holders’ jurisdiction(s) of tax residence. The Addendum provides enhanced disclosure following the implementation of new statutory requirements in relation to the automatic exchange of financial account information (“AEOI”). The Addendum explains the impact that AEOI may have to the Greater China ETF and Unitholders, and the measures that may be taken to ensure compliance with AEOI. These include, but are not limited to, due diligence obligations on FI to identify financial accounts held by tax residents of reportable jurisdiction, collect the reportable information of these accounts and furnish the information to the Hong Kong Inland Revenue Department (“IRD”). The IRD will then exchange the information with the tax authorities of the AEOI partner jurisdictions on an annual basis.

3 Updates in relation to index data, ongoing charges, tracking difference and past performance information

The Addendum provides an update on the index data (including the top 10 largest constituent stocks by weighting) relating to FTSE® Greater China HKD Index (the “Underlying Index”) as at 31 January 2017.

The Revised KFS provides updated information relating to the following:

- the ongoing charges, tracking difference and past performance information of the Greater China ETF and the Underlying Index;
- the index data (including the top 10 largest constituent stocks by weighting) relating to the Underlying Index as at 31 January 2017.

You may also find information on the ongoing charges figure, tracking difference and the past performance of the Greater China ETF on its website.

4 Updates to details of the directors of the Manager

The Addendum provides an update to the list of directors of the Manager.

The Prospectus (together with addenda) and the Revised KFS are available at the Greater China ETF’s website: www.spdrs.com.hk/etf/fund/fund_detail_3073_EN.html¹.
