

SPDR[®] MSCI Australia Select High Dividend Yield Fund

Key Features

- Relatively Low Cost¹
- Tradability
- Transparency of Performance
- Diversification²

¹ Frequent trading of ETFs could significantly increase commissions and other costs such that they may offset any savings from low fees or costs.

² Diversification does not protect against loss.

Fund Objective

The SPDR MSCI Australia Select High Dividend Yield Fund seeks to closely track, before fees and expenses, the returns of the MSCI Australia Select High Dividend Yield Index.

Index Description

The MSCI Australia Select High Dividend Yield Index is designed to reflect the performance of listed Australian companies with relatively high dividend income and quality characteristics with the potential for franked dividend income.

Fund Performance is the Total Return, representing the sum of the Growth (or Price) Return and Distribution Return.

Past Performance is not a reliable indicator of future performance.

Performance returns for periods of less than one year are not annualised and have been calculated based on changes in the net asset value of the Fund rather than the last quoted price. Performance is shown net of management fees and costs but does not reflect the brokerage fees or the bid/ask spread that investors pay to buy and sell ETF securities on the Australian Securities Exchange. Distributions are assumed to be reinvested under the Dividend Reinvestment Program (DRP). Investment returns and principal value will fluctuate, so you may have a gain or loss when units are sold. Current performance may be higher or lower than that quoted.

The index returns reflect all items of income, gain and loss and the reinvestment of dividends (net of withholding tax) and other income. Index returns are unmanaged and do not reflect the deduction of any fees or expenses.

Index methodology is available at https://www.msci.com/eqb/methodology/meth_docs/MSCI_Australia_Select_High_Dividend_Yield_Index_Nov2019.pdf

In the factsheets prior to July 2016, the published 'Since Inception' performance figure was calculated from month end.

This material is general information only and does not take into account your individual objectives, financial situation or needs and you should consider whether it is appropriate for you. You should seek professional advice and consider the product disclosure statement and target market determination, available at www.ssga.com, before deciding whether to acquire or continue to hold units in an ETF. This material should not be considered a solicitation to buy or sell a security. ETFs trade like stocks, are subject to investment risk, fluctuate in market value and may trade at prices above or below the ETF's net asset value. Investing involves risk including the risk of loss of principal. Diversification does not ensure a profit or guarantee against loss. Sector ETF products are also subject to sector risk and non-diversification risk, which generally results in greater price fluctuations than the overall market. Equity securities may fluctuate in value and can decline significantly in response to the activities of individual companies and general market and economic conditions. Characteristics presented are calculated using the month end market value of holdings, except for beta and standard deviation, if shown, which use month end return values. Averages reflect the market weight of securities in the portfolio.
