You could lose money by investing in the Funds. Because the share price of the Funds is expected to fluctuate, when you sell your shares they may be worth more or less than what you originally paid for them. The Funds may impose a fee upon the sale of your shares or may temporarily suspend your ability to sell shares if the Funds' liquidity falls below required minimums because of market conditions or other factors. An investment in the Funds is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. The Funds' sponsor has no legal obligation to provide financial support to the Funds, and you should not expect that the sponsor will provide financial support to the Funds at any time.

The Funds are a money market funds, pursuant to Rule 2a-7 under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended. The net asset value ("NAV") of the Funds' shares is expected to "float," fluctuating with changes in the values of the Funds' portfolio securities. The Funds typically accept purchase and redemption orders multiple times per day, and calculates its NAV at each such time. Please see the Funds' Prospectuses at ssga.com/cash for additional information.
