

SPDR Bloomberg Barclays 0–3 Year Euro Corporate Bond UCITS ETF

A cost-efficient,* physical UCITS ETF that tracks the Bloomberg Barclays Euro 0–3 Year Corporate Bond Index, from a provider with a track record of managing this index exposure.

Funds in Focus

SYBD	SPDR Bloomberg Barclays
SEUC (EUR)	0–3 Year Euro Corporate
SEUC (CHF)	Bond UCITS ETF

Reasons to Consider this Exposure

- Short duration, which means the fund is less sensitive to interest rates. While the ECB is not expected to raise rates for the foreseeable future, the bond curve could start to steepen. Its low duration makes this a more defensive strategy.
- Provides yield pick-up compared to euro government bonds of similar duration.
- Broader sector exposures compared to floating rate note ETFs.
- Ongoing purchases of non-financial investment grade bonds by the ECB as part of their pandemic response should act as a backstop for credit.

EUR Drawdown Comparison

Source: State Street Global Advisors, Morningstar Direct, as of 31 December 2020. Diversification does not ensure a profit or guarantee against loss. Past performance is not a guarantee of future results. It is not possible to invest directly in an index. Index performance does not reflect charges and expenses associated with the fund or brokerage commissions associated with buying and selling a fund. Index performance is not meant to represent that of any particular fund. Index characteristics are as of the date indicated, are subject to change, and should not be relied upon as current thereafter.

* Frequent trading of ETFs could significantly increase commissions and other costs such that they may offset any savings from low fees or costs.

How to Incorporate this Exposure in Your Portfolio

- The ETF can be used as a strategic portfolio building block, providing exposure to short-dated euro corporate bonds.
- Alternatively, it can be used to make tactical characteristic adjustments to an investor's overall portfolio. This includes reducing a portfolio's overall duration and/or increasing or reducing its credit quality.
- The ETF can help with cash and liquidity management. An allocation to the fund may allow a cash allocation to be kept to a minimum, in turn mitigating out-of-market exposure and cash drag.

Potential Risks

Corporate Default. Whilst the securities held in this ETF are considered 'investment grade', there is still always the chance of default. In that event, companies may not be able to meet their obligations and investors could lose their value of the investment.

Interest Rate Risk. Due to its short duration, this ETF is less affected by interest rate moves. This can have a positive or negative effect depending on the direction of the market.

Israel: No action has been taken or will be taken in Israel that would permit a public offering of the Securities or distribution of this sales brochure to the public in Israel. This sales brochure has not been approved by the Israel Securities Authority (the 'ISA'). Accordingly, the Securities shall only be sold in Israel to an investor of the type listed in the First Schedule to the Israeli Securities Law, 1978, which has confirmed in writing that it falls within one of the categories listed therein (accompanied by external confirmation where this is required under ISA guidelines), that it is aware of the implications of being considered such an investor and consents thereto, and further that the Securities are being purchased for its own account and not for the purpose of re-sale or distribution. This sales brochure may not be reproduced or used for any other purpose, nor be furnished to any other person other than those to whom copies have been sent. Nothing in this sales brochure should be considered investment advice or investment marketing as defined in the Regulation of Investment Advice, Investment Marketing and Portfolio Management Law, 1995 ("the Investment Advice Law"). Investors are encouraged to seek competent investment advice from a locally licensed investment advisor prior to making any investment. State Street is not licensed under the Investment Advice Law, nor does it carry the insurance as required of a licensee thereunder. This sales brochure does not constitute an offer to sell or solicitation of an offer to buy any securities other than the Securities offered hereby, nor does it constitute an offer to sell to or solicitation of an offer to buy from any person or persons in any state or other jurisdiction in which such offer or solicitation would be unlawful, or in which the person making such offer or solicitation is not qualified to do so, or to a person or persons to whom it is unlawful to make such offer or solicitation. Luxembourg: The Companies have been notified to the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier in Luxembourg in order to market its shares for sale to the public in Luxembourg and the Companies are notified Undertakings in Collective Investment for Transferable Securities (UCITS). Netherlands: This communication is directed at qualified investors within the meaning of Section 2:72 of the Dutch Financial Markets Supervision Act (Wet op het financieel toezicht) as amended. Investing involves risk including the risk of loss of principal. Investing in foreign domiciled securities may involve risk of capital loss from unfavorable fluctuation in currency values, withholding taxes, from differences in generally accepted accounting principles or from economic or political instability in other nations. Investments in emerging or developing markets may be more volatile and less liquid than investing in developed markets and may involve exposure to economic structures that are generally less diverse and mature and to political systems which have less stability than those of more developed countries. Investing in foreign domiciled securities may involve risk of capital loss from unfavourable fluctuation in currency values, withholding taxes, from differences in generally accepted accounting principles or from economic or political instability in other nations. Bonds generally present less short-term risk and volatility than stocks, but contain interest rate risk (as interest rates raise, bond prices usually fall); issuer default risk; issuer credit risk; liquidity risk; and inflation risk. These effects are usually pronounced for longer-term securities. Any fixed income security sold or redeemed prior to maturity may be subject to a substantial gain or loss.
